We're (almost) halfway through the Semester, CAPTains!

As Week 6 begins, let's have a look at some of the events that have kept us going through school, as well as those that are still ongoing.

PAST

MINISTER VISITATION

CAPT had the privilege of hosting the Minister for Education, Lawrence Wong, and NUS President, Professor Tan Eng Chye, on Tuesday 8th September.

During their visit, Minister Wong and Professor Tan observed the various measures enacted in the College to ensure health and safety. They sat in for a few activities such as a college seminar, floorball training and even took a look at the College's accommodation.

E-WELCOME BACK DINNER

This year's dinner may have been held over Zoom, but that did not stop CAPTains from "dressing up" for the event. CAPTains gathered in zones to enjoy food and drink together from the comfort of their own rooms (or lounges).

Performances by R4D, Guitarpella and Jamcity drew diners in over the course of the night. The event ended with a moving rendition of "Home", where CAPTains belted the chorus as a united family to the College's own soundtrack arranged by Samantha Li and Marcus Tan.

OPEN MIC

Even the Covid-19 restrictions could not restrict the LIT talents that were on display at Open Mic: Connection. This year, ClubSocs had the privilege of hosting CAPT's first ever online Open Mic. From sick dance moves to chill acoustic covers and everything in between, CAPTains were treated to an array of entertaining performances put up by the numerous talents that took part in Open Mic. Congratulations to all performers who won awards:

Most Shook: Christine Toh

Most Lit: ISST

Most LOL: SAF Starter Pack

Most Chill Vibes Style: no boys allowed

People's Choice Award: Daniel Ong

Also, shoutout to the most Onz audiences: Level 6 Lounge, Level 6 Lounge 2 and Phoenix HH! ClubSocs hopes that you enjoyed Open Mic: Connection, and stayed tuned for Semester 2's Open Mic too!

CAPTSULE 19/20 AND PINS COLLECTION

Over the span of 3 days, CAPTains from AY19/20 across came down to the various collection points to receive their CAPT pins and yearbooks designed by the 8th Publicity Committee.

For seniors who have yet to collect their yearbooks and/or pins, please contact @lydiagan directly on Telegram, or email lydiagan@u.nus.edu.

PRESENT

capt pal 2.0

Have you done your missions?

Complete 2 missions to receive your mortal pair.

Have fun!
Love, SAC

CAPT PAL 2.0

Organised by the Student Affairs Committee (SAC), CAPT Pal 2.0 is an extension of CAPT e-FOC's CAPT Pal, where freshmen are paired with someone from their zone orientation group and write letters to their CAPT Pal over the course of e-FOC.

Over the last few weeks, freshmen have been getting to know a fellow faculty batchmate, by going out for meals, studying together, and acting as 'Angels' for their respective 'Mortal' pairs.

The reveal happens this Thursday, 17th Sep, from 8.30-10pm in your respective lounges.

GREENCAPTAINS DONATION DRIVE

GreenCAPTains along with RC4, Tembusu and USP are running a clothes donation drive for charity across all RCs in the coming weeks.

A collection box will be placed near the printer in Flying Seed, 1st Floor from 15 Sep - 17 Sep 2020. Please drop the clothes/fabric you would like to donate in the boxes.

The clothes collected will be sold on Instagram page @nusasecondwear for fundraising. Funds go towards helping migrant workers and the deaf communities, 2 groups of people badly impacted by Covid-19. Unsold clothes will also be recycled to reduce textile waste.
